H.K. Chaudhary
Chairman
BRCM Education Society

From the Director’s Desk

With the dawn of a new year, as I look back at the yesteryears, I find that we have successfully completed Twenty Six years since inception of BRCM Education Society.

We have accepted education and training as the primary mode of serving the society at large. This should not be taken to imply by any stretch of imagination that we are grooming only future professional managers. We do understand that unless the downtrodden, vulnerable sections of society, are served to the best of our ability, we would be failing in our social responsibilities.

I believe, by working together in an environment of trust and support, we would be able to achieve more success and fame in the years to come. I extend my sincere thanks to all the Heads of the Institutions and editorial board for their kind support in bringing out this editions of ‘Samagra Shiksha’. I wish a very happy and prosperous New Year 2014 to all students, staff, Well Wishers and all readers of Samagra Shiksha.

A tribute to man who lived a life of ageless dignity

Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela
(A great statesman and an enduring symbol of justice)

Mandela's words, "The struggle is my life," are not to be taken lightly. Nelson Mandela personifies struggle. He lead the fight against apartheid with extraordinary vigour and resilience after spending nearly three decades of his life behind bars. He sacrificed his private life and his youth for his people, and remains South Africa's best known and loved hero.

He was born at Qunu, near Umtata on 18 July 1918. His father, Henry Mgadi Mandela, was chief councillor to Thembuland's acting paramount chief David Dalindyabo. When his father died, Mandela became the chief's ward and was groomed for the chieftainship.

Mandela matriculated at Healdtown Methodist Boarding School and then started a BA degree at Fort Hare. As an SRC member he participated in a student strike and was expelled, along with the late Oliver Tambo, in 1940. He completed his degree by correspondence from Johannesburg, did articles of clerkship and enrolled for an LLB at the University of the Witwatersrand.

In 1944 he helped found the ANC Youth League, whose Programme of Action was adopted by the ANC in 1949. Mandela was elected national volunteer-in-chief of the 1952 Defiance Campaign. He travelled the country organising resistance to discriminatory legislation.

He was given a suspended sentence for his part in the campaign. Shortly afterwards a banning order confined him to Johannesburg for six months. During this period he formulated the "M Plan", in terms of which ANC branches were broken down into underground cells.

By 1952 Mandela and Tambo had opened the first black legal firm in the country, and Mandela was both Transvaal president of the ANC and deputy national president. A petition by the Transvaal Law Society to strike Mandela off the roll of attorneys was refused by the Supreme Court.

In the 'fifties, after being forced through constant bannings to resign officially from the ANC, Mandela analysed the Bantustan policy as a political swindle. He predicted mass removals, political persecutions and police terror.

For the second half of the 'fifties, he was one of the accused in the Treason Trial. With Duma Nokwe, he conducted the defence. When the ANC was banned after the Sharpeville massacre in 1960, he was detained until 1961 when he went underground to lead a campaign for a new national convention.

In 1962 Mandela left the country for military training in Algeria and to arrange training for other MK members. On his return he was arrested for leaving the country illegally and for incitement to strike. He conducted his own defence. He was convicted and jailed for five years in November 1962. While serving his sentence, he was charged, in the Rivonia trial, with sabotage and sentenced to life imprisonment.

A decade before being imprisoned, Mandela had spoken out against the introduction of Bantu Education, recommending that community activists "make every home, every shack or rickety structure a centre of learning".

Robben Island, where he was imprisoned, became a centre for learning, and Mandela was a central figure in the organised political education classes. In prison Mandela never compromised his political principles and was always a source of strength for the other prisoners.

During the 'seventies he refused the offer of a remission of sentence if he recognised Transkei and settled there. In the 'eighties he again rejected PW Botha's offer of freedom if he renounced violence. It is significant that shortly after his release on Sunday 11 February 1990, Mandela and his delegation agreed to the suspension of armed struggle.

Mandela has been awarded honorary degrees from more than 50 international universities and is chancellor of the University of the North. He was the first democratically elected State President of South Africa from 10 May 1994 - June 1999. Mandela was the saviour of mankind, the solution to the unfathomable torture and agony of apartheid in South Africa. Mandela was not just the President of South Africa, but a leader of the world's tortured and oppressed population; he was a living symbol of freedom & liberty. Nelson Mandela retired from Public life in June 1999 and he died on 5 December 2013 at his home in Houghton, Johannesburg at the age of 95.

INTRODUCTION

The present day scenario of our society is in a pathetic state and far from an acceptable limit. There is frustration in almost all sections of the society. The moral values are steeply declining and large scale corruption and misuse of power are rampant. The respect for parents, teachers and elderly persons has become a thing of the past. The situation is deteriorating fast and it is difficult to guess where this will end and what will be the state of society in the time to come. There is, therefore, a need for the intelligenta to analyze the whole situation and come out with some solution before it is too late.

The total human life tenure can be divided into following stages:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Stage</th>
<th>Tenure</th>
<th>Type</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I stage (0–14 years)</td>
<td>Child</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>II stage (Above 14 – 30 years)</td>
<td>Youth</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>III stage (Above 30 years)</td>
<td>Adult</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The diagram gives a schematic of the sensitivity to changes in these three different stages of human life. It is seen that youth is most sensitive to changes in the society. The kind of customs prevailing in the society, the films and TV serials being produced and the political scenario prevailing has maximum influence on youth. It is a well acceptable scientific principle that for every action there is an equal and opposite reaction. On this principle, the changes in the society are affecting the youth most and the transformations in the youth are influencing the society most. This interaction between society and youth is therefore a perpetual mechanism. It is therefore imperative that maximum changes (reforms) in the society can be accomplished by effecting changes in the youth. Thus we can reform our society only by reformating the youth. Now the big question is who or which body or system can reform the youth? The following systems (bodies) come to our mind: (i) Political System (ii) Religious Organizations and (iii) Education Institutions. In India, the Political System and Religious Organizations have miserably failed in providing moral values to the society. We have to, therefore, look towards educational institutions to reformat the youth and thereby the society.

WHAT AN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION CAN DO TO REFORM THE YOUTH?

An educational institution can (i) Provide moral education (ii) Teach ethics and (iii) Make students to think and analyze themselves, i.e., Who am I? What is the objective of my life? What should be my role in the society? When society is doing so much for me, what am I doing for the society? Are my deeds/acts beneficial or detrimental to the society? Am I fulfilling at least the minimum needed obligation towards my parents, family and teachers? This requires, however, a team of ethical teachers, who possess empathy (ability to bond with students), positive mental attitude, creativity, good presentation skills, sense of humour, passion and willingness to learn and teach. An ethical teacher is one who (i) believes in oneness of humanity (ii) loves all human beings regardless of colour and ethnicity (iii) is far removed from fanaticism of a religion. A good teacher will make good students, whereas bad students will make bad teachers. A good teacher is always a good student. A good teacher is like a light-torch, which shows the right path to people in darkness. A good teacher should (i) know his/her subject well and make teaching-learning interesting, (ii) be a good listener too, (iii) make the class at ease, (iv) wear a dress acceptable to his/her profession, (v) be always willing to help his/her present as well past students and (vi) aim not only to get good marks for his/her students, but also to make them good citizens.

DISCRIMINATION IN PRIMARY EDUCATION

The primary education system in India suffers greatly from the virus of ‘discrimination’, which is largely responsible for high degree of discrimination in almost all sectors of the society. There are children who are highly blessed and have the fortune of getting convent education in reputed public schools. On the other side, there are also children, who are victims of poverty and unawareness. There are children, who possess nice school dress, lo, shoes and school bags. There are also children, who are totally deprived of such amenities. There are children who are taught by highly qualified teachers. There are also children who study in schools where there are insufficient or no teachers. There are also many unfortunate children, who never get opportunity even to see the face of a school. Such children always remain in darkness and become victim of poverty. The economists world over have time and again proved that any family or society, which ignores or is deprived of education, remains always economically weaker.

Primary education forms the foundation of our society. If the foundation is infected with discrimination, the entire society, as it is built up on this foundation, will obviously be also infected with this virus. School children at primary school level are totally innocent and do not know how to raise their protest against this discrimination in primary education. As such their concern for getting equal education is not being heard and addressed. The political system in India is also totally immune to this discrimination. There are initiatives taken by the government for right to information, right to food, right to protest, right to education and many others. But there is absolutely no attention towards right to equal and undiscriminatory primary education. During elections, which are important part of our democratic process, there is absolutely no mention of any promise to provide equal and undiscriminatory primary education in the manifestos of political parties. On the contrary, the discriminations in the society, which have resulted due to unequal and discriminatory primary education, are used as tools for winning elections.

CONCLUSION

It is imperative that maximum changes in our society, which is currently a victim of rapidly declining moral values, can be brought about by effecting changes in the youth. In this, educational institutions can play vital role. Further, the solution to eliminate high degree of discrimination in various spheres of our society lies in providing equal and un discriminatory primary school education to all our children.

मेरा भारत देश महान
स्वर्ग से सुंदर यह घरती है।
जहाँ जन्मे भगवान्।
मेरा भारत देश महान्……...
राम कृष्ण की लीलाओं का,
होता जहाँ गुणगान। मेरा भारत……
वृंदावन के धाम को देखा,
गाय चरते श्राम को देखा
गीता और पुराण की देखा,
गंगा जी के जान को देखा।
जहाँ बजाई श्राम ने मुरली,
यही है वह ब्रज धाम॥ मेरा भारत……
अभिनग को महिमा न्यायी,
सरस्य जी की शोभा प्यारी।
जहाँ झुलते प्रभु को झुला,
सावन में लाखों नर नारी।

राम सिया की सुंदर झांकी,
निरंक रहे हनुमन॥ मेरा भारत……
तुलसिसूर कबीर हुए हैं,
अवृण जैसे बीर हुए हैं।
श्रुत, प्रहाद, रक्षेम हुए हैं,
हरिरवचन सतवीर हुए हैं
जहाँ पे मीराबाई प्रभु का,
कारती थी गुणगान॥ मेरा भारत……
एक तरफ है खड़ा हिमालय,
एक तरफ सागर लहराता।
कायमर से कन्या कृमारी,
गर्वित होकर भज फहराता।
संतों को ये पावन घरती,
यही है जग की शान॥ मेरा भारत……

OBITUARY

The entire BRCM Education society mourns at the sudden and unfortunate demise of Mr. Pawan Tyagi who was very hard working, honest, dedicated and committed to deadlines. क्या अंधेरा दूर कर सकता दगड़ का,
जब तलक दीयक स्वर्य जलता नहीं हो।
क्या कभी कोई बनेगा पथ-प्रदर्शक
जब स्वर्य उस राह पर चलता नहीं हो॥
क्या भला वह कर सकेगा युग प्रवर्तन,
जो प्रवर्तित भाव में पलता नहीं हो।
क्या कभी कोई बनेगा पथ-प्रदर्शक
जब स्वर्य उस राह पर चलता नहीं हो॥

चाह नहीं में सुरक्षा के गहनों में गृह्य जाओँ
चाह नहीं प्रेमी माला में बिंद यमी को ललचाओँ
चाह नहीं देवों के सिर पर चढ़ू भाग्य पर इङ्काओँ
चाह नहीं राजाओं के सिर पर हे हर डाला जाओँ
मुझे तोड़ लेना बनमाली उस पथ पर देना तुम फेंक
मातृभूमि पर शीश चढ़ने जिस पथ जाएं बीर अनेक।
